

The Nal'ibali 2015

SUMMER

STORY SEARCH CHALLENGE

Take the Nal'ibali Summer Reading Challenge – a fun way to keep you and your children reading over the long school holiday.

All you have to do is find these stories from our range of multilingual stories on the Nal'ibali website or mobisite: www.nalibali.org and www.nalibali.mobi

Once you've explored our stories, you should be able to:

- 1) Find a story about animals _____
- 2) Find a story about family _____
- 3) Find a story with an important lesson _____
- 4) Find a story about friendship _____
- 5) Find a story about love _____
- 6) Find a story that taught you something new _____
- 7) Find a story that made you sad _____
- 8) Find a story that's funny _____
- 9) Find a story that's scary _____
- 10) Find a story that you would read again and again _____

Send your ten answers along with your name, delivery address and contact details to info@nalibali.org by Wednesday 13 January 2016 – and you could win a Nal'ibali stationery hamper!

And, to help you keep up your reading routines in the new year, we'll send everyone who enters a 2016 Story Power Promise.

Remember, it's all about having fun so enjoy the stories as you go along, read them in your preferred languages, and pick the ones that you like best!
