

Tyd om saam te lees en te skryf!

As jy glo dat jou kinders suksesvolle lesers en skrywers sal word, en jy sê dit vir hulle, sal hulle ook glo dat hulle suksesvolle lesers en skrywers kan word. Maak hierdie vakansieseisoen tyd om vir hulle stories te vertel en saam met hulle te lees en skryf. So sal hulle ervar hoe geletterdheid bevredigend en nuttig kan wees.

Maak geletterdheid deel van jou huis

- ⦿ Skep 'n storie-roetine. Sit elke dag tyd opsy om stories te lees en/of te vertel.
- ⦿ Vertel stories. Vertel vir jou kinders stories, sing liedjies en sê gedigte op wat jy ken. Dit stimuleer hul verbeelding en ontwikkel hul taal. Luister ook na hul stories, en onthou om jou waardering te toon.
- ⦿ Gebruik jou huistaal. Eerste stories behoort in jou kinders se huistaal te wees. 'n Sterk grondslag in hul huistaal is die sleutel tot suksesvolle leer – wat lees en skryf insluit – want om goed te leer, moet hulle goed verstaan.
- ⦿ Wees 'n rolmodel. Laat jou kinders sien dat jy vir genot lees en ook om inligting te vind.

Time to read and write together!

If you believe that your children will become successful readers and writers, and you let them know this, they will also believe that they can be successful readers and writers. This holiday season, take the time to tell them stories and to read and write with them, and they will experience the ways in which literacy can be satisfying and useful.

Making literacy part of your home

- ⦿ Create a story routine. Set aside time every day to read and/or tell stories.
- ⦿ Tell stories. Tell your children stories, sing songs and recite poems you know. This stimulates their imagination and develops their language. Listen to their stories too, and remember to show your appreciation.
- ⦿ Use your home language. First stories should be in your children's home language. A strong foundation in their home language is the key to all successful learning – including learning to read and write – because to learn well, they need to understand well.
- ⦿ Be a role model. Let your children see you reading for pleasure and to find information.

Almal het 'n rol om te speel

- ⦿ Skep storietye wat die hele gesin saam kan geniet. Laat 'n lid van die gesin een keer per week tydens aandete 'n storie vertel.
- ⦿ Gaan saam biblioteek toe. Laat baie tyd toe vir hulle om rond te kyk, en gesels dan met jou kinders oor hulle keuses voordat hulle final besluit watter boeke om uit te neem.
- ⦿ Bou kinders se selfvertroue. Put genot uit jou kinders se pogings om self te lees, net soos jy uit hul eerste woorde genot geput het! Luister ook na en prys jonger kinders wanneer hulle maak of hulle lees – kinders moet soos lesers optree om lesers te word!

Everyone has a role to play

- ⦿ Create story times that the whole family can enjoy together. Once a week, let a different family member tell a story during supper time.
- ⦿ Visit the library together. Allow plenty of time to browse, then chat to your children about their choices before they make their final decision about which books to borrow.
- ⦿ Develop children's confidence. Value your children's attempts to read on their own, just like you valued their first words! Also listen to and praise your younger children when they pretend to read – children need to behave like readers to become readers!

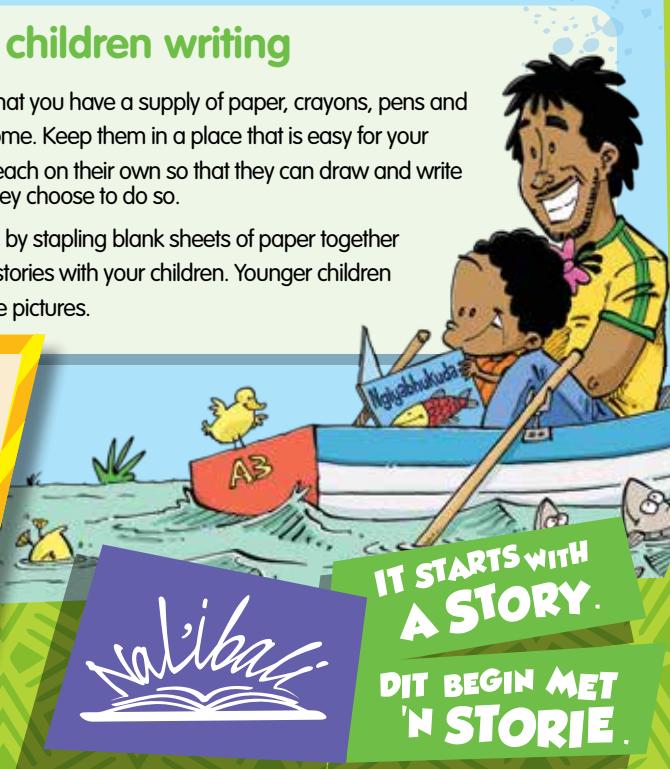

Kry jou kinders aan die skryf

- ⦿ Maak seker jy het 'n voorraad papier, vektry, penne en potlode by die huis. Bére dit op 'n plek waar jou kinders dit maklik self kan bykom sodat hulle kan teken en skryf wanneer hulle ook al wil.
- ⦿ Maak boeke deur blanko velle papier aan mekaar vas te kram en saam met jou kinders stories te skryf. Jonger kinders kan die prente teken.

Get your children writing

- ⦿ Make sure that you have a supply of paper, crayons, pens and pencils at home. Keep them in a place that is easy for your children to reach on their own so that they can draw and write whenever they choose to do so.
- ⦿ Make books by stapling blank sheets of paper together and writing stories with your children. Younger children can draw the pictures.

Literacy Seeds!

Happy holidays with your young ones

Beste ouers en versorgers van jong kinders, baie gesinne sien daarna uit om in die Desember-vakansie na ander dele van die land te reis om by familie en vriende te gaan kuier. Met 'n bietjie beplanning, kan jy en jou kinders die rit en die tyd weg van die huis af nog meer geniet!

Reiswense

- ◎ Beplan om meer gereeld stil te hou en sorg ook vir eetgoed. Jong kinders kan nie so lank soos volwassenes stilsit nie. Hulle het ook gesonde eetgoed soos vrugte nodig vir hul groeiende liggame.
- ◎ Vind 'n veilige plek waar die kinders kan rondhardloop en van opgehoede energie ontslae kan raak wanneer julle stilhou om brandstof in te gooi en die kleekamers te besoek.
- ◎ Pak 'n klein aktiwiteitsakkie vir elke kind. Sluit papier in om op te teken of te skryf, prente wat hulle kan inkleur, kleurpotlode en penne. Pak ook 'n gunstelingprenteboek in wat hulle kan lees. Gaan na ons webwerf by www.nalibali.org vir aktiwiteitsblaas en storiekaarte wat jy kan uitdruk.

Dear parents and caregivers of young children, many families look forward to travelling to different parts of the country to visit family and friends over the December holiday period. With a bit of planning, you and your young children will enjoy the trip and the time away from home even more!

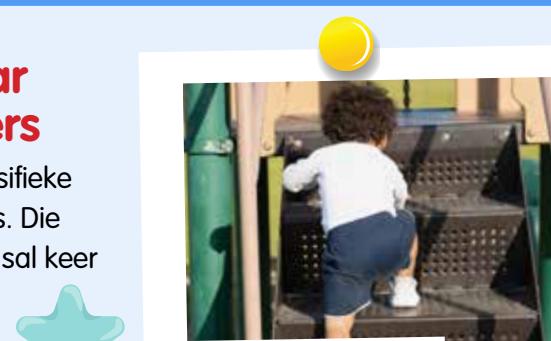

Travelling tips

- ◎ Plan for more stops and snacks. Young children cannot sit still for as long as adults. They also need healthy snacks like fruit to feed their growing bodies.
- ◎ When you stop for fuel and toilet breaks, find a safe place for the young ones to run around and get rid of pent-up energy.
- ◎ Pack a small activity bag for each child. Include some paper for drawing or writing, colouring-in pages, coloured pencils and pens. Also include a favourite picture book to read. Visit our website at www.nalibali.org for printable activity pages and story cards.

Maak seker die plek waar julle bly, is veilig vir kinders

- ★ Maak seker jou baba slaap op 'n spesifieke plek wat stil is en waar daar vars lug is. Die bed of bababedje moet kante hê wat sal keer dat jou baba van die bed afrol.
- ★ Gebruik 'n hekkie of ander versperring om jou baba of kleuter van die trappe weg te hou as daar trappe is.
- ★ Maak seker dat geen skerp of stukkende voorwerpe in speelareas rondlê nie.
- ★ 'n Volwassene moet oor kinders toesig hou wanneer hulle naby emmers water of damme speel. 'n Baba kan selfs in 'n paar sentimeter water verdrink.
- ★ Hou kinders op 'n veilige afstand van kookgeriewe en braaiareas af.
- ★ Weet hoe en waar om vinnig mediese hulp te kry.

(Aangepas en vertaal uit Planning holidays with children; <https://raisingchildren.net.au>)

Make sure the place that you stay at is safe for children

- ★ Make sure your baby has a set place to sleep that is quiet and has fresh air. The bed or cot should have sides to stop your baby from rolling off the bed.
- ★ If there are stairs, find a gate or other barrier to keep your baby or toddler away from the steps.
- ★ Check that play areas do not have sharp or broken objects lying around.
- ★ An adult needs to watch children when they play near buckets of water or dams. A baby can drown in even a few centimetres of water.
- ★ Keep children at a safe distance from cooking and braai areas.
- ★ Know how and where to find medical help quickly.

Prettige aktiwiteite vir jong kinders

Vakansietye bied wonderlike geleenthede om meer tyd saam met jou kinders deur te bring. Onthou dat byna elke aktiwiteit 'n geleenthed is om 'n storie te vertel of op te maak! Jong kinders se verbeelding word ook aangewakker wanneer hulle speel.

- 1. 'n Hindernisbaan. Gebruik kussings, sagte komberse en matte om 'n opwindende hindernisbaan te maak waarder jou baba of kleuter kan beweeg. Hulle sal dit geniet om "deur" bokse te kruip wat aan elke kant oop is, of deur tonnels van komberse wat oor stoelle gedrapeer is. Kruip self deur die hindernisbaan om vir jou kind te wys wat om te doen.
- 2. Maak saam kos. Kleuters sal meer geneig wees om nuwe kos te probeer as hulle gehelp het om dit voor te berei. Wanneer hulle jou help om bestanddele te meng, te skink en te hanteer, versterk dit ook hul fynmotoriese vaardighede en hand-oog-koördinasie. Maak 'n rympie, liedjie of storie op oor die kos terwyl julle die ete voorberei. Maak byvoorbeeld of jy 'n seekoei is wanneer jy jou mond groot oopmaak om iets te hap.
- 3. Maak jou eie speelgoed. Gebruik alledaagse voorwerpe in en om die huis, soos stukkies materiaal, wol en knope, om jul eie speelgoed en speletjies te maak. Gebruik die speelgoed wat julle maak, om 'n storie te vertel.
- 4. Hou 'n opvoering. Kinders is dol oor voorgeespel! Wanneer kinders 'n vertoning vir hul familielede en maats hou, gee dit hulle 'n goeie rede om aan te trek, hul gunstelingrympies en -liedjies op te sê of te sing, en te dans. En kinders van alle ouderdomme geniet dit wanneer hul geliefdes hulle aanmoedig en vir hulle hande klap.

Fun activities with young children

Holidays are wonderful opportunities to spend more time with our children. Remember that almost every activity is an opportunity to tell or make up a story! Play also builds the imaginations of young children.

- 1. An obstacle course. Use cushions, pillows, soft blankets and mats to make an exciting obstacle course for your baby or toddler to move through. They will love going "through" boxes that open at each end or tunnels that are made with blankets draped over chairs. Crawl through the obstacle course to show your little one what to do.

- 2. Make a meal together. Toddlers are more likely to try new foods if they have helped to prepare them. When they help you to mix, pour and handle ingredients, their fine motor skills and hand-eye coordination will also be strengthened. Make up a rhyme, song or story about food while you make the meal. For example, pretend to be a hippopotamus when you open your mouth wide to eat a snack.

- 3. Make your own toys. Use everyday items that can be found at home, like pieces of material, wool and buttons, to make your own toys and games. Use the toys that you make to tell a story.
- 4. Put on a show. Children love playing make believe! Putting on a show for their family members and friends gives young children the perfect reason to dress up, say or sing their favourite rhymes and songs, and dance. And children of all ages love nothing more than to see and hear their loved ones cheering and clapping for them.

Nog prettige dinge om te doen!

- ★ Gaan hou picknick. Pak jul middagete in en geniet dit in die park of in die tuin. Bring jou kinders se gunstelingspeelgoed saam na die picknick toe.
- ★ Gaan kampeer. Maak 'n tent van komberse en lakens. 'n Tent is 'n wonderlike plek om stories te vertel en te lees!
- ★ Maak 'n tuintjie. Merk 'n klein area in die tuin uit waar jou kinders 'n speeltuin kan skep. Plant blomme, kruie, spinasie of enige ander plante wat vinnig groei. Plaas ou lepels waarmee hulle kan grawe, planthouers en speelgoeddiere van plastiek in die tuin.

More fun things to do!

- ★ Go on a picnic. Pack your lunch and enjoy it at the park or in your garden. Bring your children's favourite toys to the picnic.
- ★ Go camping. Build a tent with blankets and sheets. A tent is a great place to read and tell stories!
- ★ Make a garden patch. Mark out a small patch in the garden where your children can create an outdoor play garden. Plant flowers, herbs, spinach, or any other plant that grows quickly. Place old spoons for digging, containers for planting and plastic animal toys in the garden.

Ramošwe, Mmutla and Tshoswane were very confused.

The three were convinced the elixir had failed and that Mme Morubisi had lost her touch. But it soon dawned on them that sometimes 'tis the season to be jolly and be silly with friends and family. "Oh dear," said the seemingly all-knowing Mme Morubisi, not

"Christmas will be completely ruined!" blurted out Tshoswane, cheeky but gentle way.
"Hello, you three, what's the hurry?" Mme Morubisi asked in her

The scorching sun had been relentless. It beat down hard on the enchanted swamp. It had been a while since the waters came down from the clouds up above. Everything in Kgakala-Kgakala, the magical land far-far away, yearned for a sip of rain.

The owl knew if it didn't rain by nightfall, it would be a disaster for the Christmas festivities.

Guests chattered among themselves about this year's entertainment. "I heard they've secured a trio whose sweet serenade is going to blow us all away!" said Kwena the gruff and giddy crocodile.

"I heard it's going to be epic, out of this world," Kubu the hippo replied with a knowing chuckle.

Die skroeiende son is reeds vir maande lank genadeloos. Dit brand op die towermoeras neer. Die waters het baie lanklaas uit die wolke daar bo geval. Alles in Kgakala-Kgakala, die towerland ver hiervandaan, smag na'n slukkie reën.

Die uil besef dat dit 'n ramp vir die Kersfeesviering gaan wees as dit teen Kersaand nog nie gereën het nie.

Gaste gesels onder mekaar oor vanjaar se vermaak. "Ek het gehoor hulle het 'n trio gekry wie se pragtige serenade ons almal gaan verstom!" sê Kwena, die growwe en gulsige krokodil.

"Ek het gehoor dit gaan wonderlik wees, onbeskryflik," antwoord Kubu, die seekoei, met 'n veelseggende laggie.

"Dik jy nie die naam probeer vir ons iets se nie?" vra Mmunda, "Ek dink soet dat hulle mensie saggies sal doodmaak met hul enorme bosseister."

"Ons moet 'n stokkie hiervoor steek. Dadelik!" verklaar Tshoswane, die alleminige sterk mier. "Dit gaan Kersfees heeltemal bederr!"

"Net so," se Ramoswe. "Kyk 'n bietjie na die skare. Hulle is so opgewonde. Hulle het geen idee wat algryslike gesimig hulle gaan hoor nie."

"Kom ons hardloop gou na my om te doen," stel Tshoswane voor.

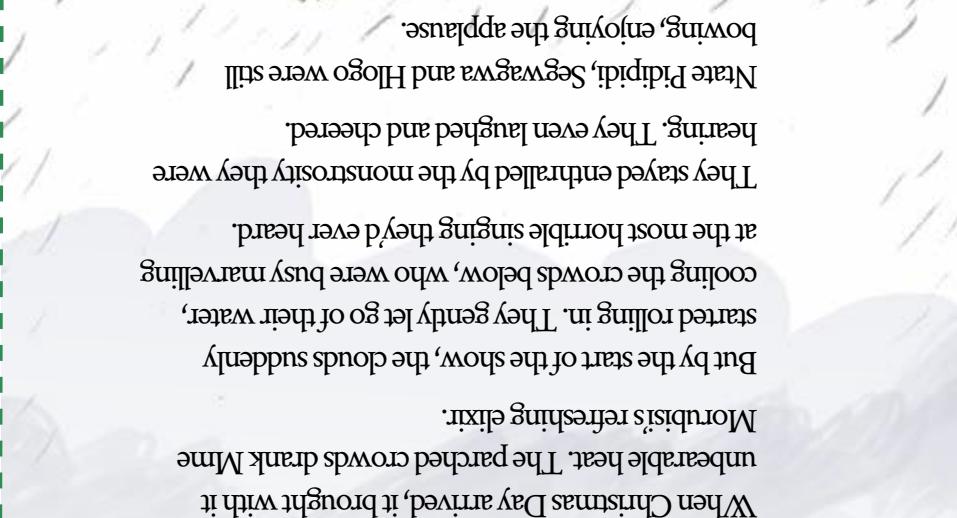

"I say we run to Mme Morubisi. She'll know what to do," said Ramoswe. "Look at all of them. They are so excited. They have no idea what a terrible thing they are about to hear."

"Agreed," said Ramoswe. "We need to put an end to this. I'mmediately!" declared Tshoswane, the immensely strong ant. "Christmas will be ruined!"

"We need to put an end to this. I'mmediately!" declared Tshoswane, enormous bushy tail.

"I really think they intend on killing people softly with their so-called singing," retorted Ramoswe, a pretty squirrel with an enormous bushy tail.

"Don't you think the name is trying to tell us something?" Mmunda, a clever rabbit, asked with a wry smile.

Last year, Mme Thaha had sung so beautifully, everyone decided the Festive Show should be held every year. But this year the heatwave gave her heatstroke, and she had to pull out at the last minute.

Ntate Pidipidi and Ntate Segwagwa pounced at the opportunity to fill in as replacements.

It's just that Ntate Pidipidi's singing was truly terribly atrocious in every way. It was matched only by that of Ntate Segwagwa. Together they were the worst singing duo in the entire universe. However, for this year's soiree, they had outdone themselves. They found an even worse singer, Ntate Hlogo – a gigantic shoebill. Together they formed a trio aptly called Killing Them Softly.

Mme Thaha het verlede jaar so pragtig gesing dat almal besluit het dat die Kerskonsert elke jaar gehou moet word. Maar hierdie jaar het die hittegolf haar sonsteek gegee, en sy moes op die nippertjie kop uittrek.

Ntate Pidipidi en Ntate Segwagwa het gretig ingestem om plaasvervangers te wees.

Die enigste probleem is dat Ntate Pidipidi se gesing aaklig klink. Eintlik is net Ntate Segwagwa se gesing erger as syn! Saam is hulle die slegste sangduo in die heelal. Vir hierdie jaar se geselligheid het hulle hulself egter oortref. Hulle het 'n selfs erger sanger, Ntate Hlogo – 'n reuse-skoenbek – bygekry. Saam het hulle 'n trio gestig wat gepas Killing Them Softly genoem word.

Toe Kersdag aanbreek, is dit ondraaglik warm. Die dorstige skare drink mme Morubisi se verfrissende drankie.

Maar net toe die vertoning begin, pak die wolke skielik saam. Hulle laat val hul water saggies en verkoel die skare daar onder, wat besig is om hulle te verwonder aan die afgryslikste sang wat hulle nog ooit gehoor het.

Hulle staan vasgenael en luister na die aaklige geraas wat hulle hoor. Maar hulle kry dit darem reg om te lag en te juig.

Ntate Pidipidi, Segwagwa en Hlogo buig nog steeds en geniet die toejuicing.

Nobukhwebezane, die waterprinses

Deur Luyanda Sikhakhane ■ Illustrasies deur Natalie en Tamsin Hinrichsen

Elke jaar in Desember is dit tyd vir die Kwanzaa-fees – ‘n tyd wanneer families bymekaarkom en kos en geskenke met mekaar deel. En elke jaar staan Khwezi, Lubo en Malaika voor dagbreek op en gaan af rivier toe. Op pad sing hulle pragtige liedjes en pluk braambessies.

Die drie meisies is altyd baie opgewonde, want op hierdie dag wag die waterprinses, Nobukhwebezane, vir hulle by die rivier. Wanneer hulle nader kom, kan hulle haar pragtige stem hoor:

*"Mense van Afrika staan op ... dis tyd vir Kwanzaa!
Ons gee vir mekaar pragtige geskenke ... wys liefde vir mekaar!
Bring vrugte, vleis en amahewu.
Kom ons eet en vier saam fees ... wys liefde vir mekaar!"*

mense van die dorpie ‘n feesmaal vir die viering van Kwanzaa kan voorberei.

Maar iets pla altyd vir Nobukhwebezane. “Ek wonder hoekom daardie meisies nooit vir my dankie sê wanneer hulle die mandjies met vrugte en groente vat nie?” wonder sy terwyl sy alleen daar sit.

Terug in die dorpie kom almal met hul helder, kleurvolle klere by die hoofman se huis bymekaar. Buiten die vrugte en groente wat hulle by die waterprinses gekry het, bring die dorpenaars graan en vleis, en hulle maak saam kos terwyl die kinders speel.

Wanneer die dorpenaars klaar geëet het, gee hulle vir mekaar geskenke en sing en dans. Die ouer mense maak beurte om hul gunstelingvolksverhale te vertel.

Een jaar, toe dit weer tyd is vir Kwanzaa, word Khwezi, Lubo en Malaika wakker en haas hulle hulle soos gewoonlik na die rivier terwyl hulle sing en langs die pad braambessies pluk. Toe hulle naby die rivier kom, besef hulle iets is fout. Hulle kan nie vir Nobukhwebezane hoor sing nie.

“Slaap Nobukhwebezane dalk nog?” wonder Malaika.

“Miskien voel sy siek,” stel Khwezi voor.

“Dalk het sy vergeet dat Kwanzaa vandag begin,” sê Lubo.

Toe hulle by die rivier kom, is daar geen teken van Nobukhwebezane nie.

Skielik verblind ‘n helder lig hulle. Toe sê ‘n harde, vreesaanjaende stem: “Enigiemand wat iets kry, moet dankie sê daarvoor! Dit is goeie maniere!” Toe verdwyn die lig en al wat hulle kon sien is die opkomende son agter die heuwels in die verte. Die meisies voel baie sleg toe hulle besef wat hulle vergeet het om te doen.

“Ons sê nooit vir Nobukhwebezane dankie vir die geskenke vir Kwanzaa nie! Ons maak altyd net dat ons wegkom,” sê Lubo hartseer.

Met swaar harte begin hulle stadig terugstap huis toe.

“Wat gaan ons sê wanneer ons met leë hande in die dorp aankom?” vra Malaika.

Khwezi draai na haar maats toe en sê: “Ons moet teruggaan en vir die waterprinses sê ons is jammer.”

“Maar Nobukhwebezane wil niks met ons te doen hê nie. Sy wil ons nie sien nie!” sê Lubo hopeloos.

“Ek stem saam met Khwezi,” sê Malaika. “Ons moet teruggaan en om verskoning vra. Selfs al is Nobukhwebezane nie daar nie kan ons vir haar ‘n boodskap by die visse los.”

“Dis ‘n goeie plan,” sê Lubo en begin beter voel. “Ek weet, ons kan op pad rivier toe braambessies pluk en dit vir Nobukhwebezane as ‘n geskenk gee.”

Die drie meisies pluk ‘n sak vol braambessies. Toe hulle terughardloop rivier toe glimlag hulle weer. Toe hulle nader kom, hoor hulle die soet klanke van die lied wat hulle so goed ken:

*"Mense van Afrika staan op ... dis tyd vir Kwanzaa!
Ons gee vir mekaar pragtige geskenke ... wys liefde vir mekaar!
Bring vrugte, vleis en amahewu.
Kom ons eet en vier saam fees ... wys liefde vir mekaar!"*

“Nobukhwebezane is terug! Die waterprinses is terug!” roep hulle en hardloop na die rivierwal toe.

Nobukhwebezane sit op ‘nrots naby die rivierwal en sy glimlag.

“Prinses, ons is regtig jammer dat ons nooit vir jou dankie gesê het vir die vrugte en groente wat jy ons persent gegee het nie!” sê Malaika.

“Ja, Nobukhwebezane, ons vra om verskoning. Vergewe ons, asseblief,” smeek Khwezi.

“Kwanzaa is ‘n tyd om geskenke te gee. Vandag het ons vir jou ‘n geskenk gebring!” sê Lubo en steek haar hand na Nobukhwebezane toe uit en gee vir haar die sak braambessies.

Nobukhwebezane kyk in die sak en glimlag. “Hierdie braambessies lyk heerlik. Dankie, my vriende!”

“Ons is so dankbaar, Prinses, vir die geskenke wat jy elke jaar tydens Kwanzaa vir ons gegee het. Dankie,” sê Malaika skamerig.

“My vriende, ... Kwanzaa is ‘n tyd om te gee, ‘n tyd van vreugde, vrede en liefde! Kom nader, ek wil vir julle ‘n nuwe liedjie leer!” Toe sing Nobukhwebezane:

*"Wees altyd dankbaar, wees altyd lief vir ander en jy sal beloon word!
Wees altyd dankbaar, wees altyd lief vir ander en jy sal beloon word!
Wees altyd dankbaar, wees altyd lief vir ander! Dit is goeie dinge!"*

“Hardloop nou huis toe,” sê sy. “Dit word laat! Hier is die mandjies vrugte en groente. Dit staan gereed vir julle.”

“Dankie, Waterprinses. Dankie, Nobukhwebezane!” sê die meisies.

“Mooi loop! Gelukkige Kwanzaa!” roep Nobukhwebezane.

“Vir jou ook, Prinses! Dankie!” roep die meisies.

Toe die meisies by die huis kom, wag die dorpenaars al vir hulle. “Dankie, meisies. Dit lyk of julle meer vrugte en groente as ooit tevore gebring het. Dankie!” sê die hoofman van die dorpie.

Toe die meisies dit hoor, kyk hulle na mekaar ... en glimlag. Hulle weet Nobukhwebezane het hulle vergewe. “Dankie, Prinses,” fluister hulle.

Nobukhwebezane, the water princess

Story corner

Every year, in December, it was time for the Kwanzaa festival – a time when families met and shared food and gifts. And every year, before dawn, Khwezi, Lubo and Malaika would get up and go down to the river. On their way, they would sing beautiful songs and pick blackberries.

The three girls were always very excited, because on this day, they would find the water princess, Nobukhwebezane, waiting for them at the river. As they got closer, they could hear her beautiful voice singing:

*"Africans arise ... Kwanzaa has come!
We give each other beautiful gifts ... we show each other love!
Bring fruit, meat and amahewu.
Let's eat, celebrate together ... show each other love!"*

The girls would sit on the riverbank and listen to the song. Then, at sunrise, Nobukhwebezane would give them baskets full of vegetables and fruits to take home to their village.

"Stay well, Water Princess!" they would call as they ran home so that the villagers could prepare a feast for the Kwanzaa celebrations.

But something always troubled Nobukhwebezane. "I wonder why those girls don't thank me when they take the baskets of fruits and vegetables?" she asked herself as she sat alone.

Back at the village, everyone would gather at the chief's home, wearing bright, colourful clothes. Besides the fruits and vegetables from the water princess, the villagers would bring grain and meat, and they would cook together while the children played.

After the villagers had feasted, they exchanged gifts, and sang and danced. The older people took turns telling their favourite folktales.

One year, when Kwanzaa arrived, Khwezi, Lubo and Malaika woke up and rushed to the river as usual, singing and picking blackberries along the way. As they neared the river, they realised that something was wrong. They couldn't hear Nobukhwebezane singing.

"Could Nobukhwebezane still be asleep?" wondered Malaika.

"Maybe she's not well," suggested Khwezi.

"Perhaps she forgot that today is the start of Kwanzaa," said Lubo.

When they reached the river, Nobukhwebezane was nowhere to be seen.

Suddenly, a bright light blinded their eyes. Then, a loud and frightening voice said, "Whoever is given something must say thank you! That is good manners!" Then the light disappeared, and only the rising sun behind the hills in the distance remained. The girls felt terrible when they realised what they had forgotten to do.

"We never thank Nobukhwebezane for the Kwanzaa gifts! We always leave in a hurry," said Lubo sadly.

With heavy hearts, they slowly started walking back home.

"What are we going to say when we arrive back at the village empty-handed?" asked Malaika.

Khwezi turned to her friends and said, "Friends, ... we must go back and apologise to the water princess."

"But Nobukhwebezane doesn't want anything to do with us. She doesn't want to see us!" said Lubo, feeling hopeless.

"I agree with Khwezi," said Malaika. "We have to go back and apologise. Even if we don't find Nobukhwebezane there, we can leave a message for her with the fish."

"Good idea," said Lubo, starting to feel better. "I know, on our way back to the river, we can pick blackberries as a gift for Nobukhwebezane."

The three girls picked a bag full of blackberries. Their faces were smiling again as they ran back down to the river. As they got closer, they heard the sweet song they knew so well:

*"Africans arise ... Kwanzaa has come!
We give each other beautiful gifts ... we show each other love!
Bring fruit, meat and amahewu.
Let's eat, celebrate together ... show each other love!"*

"Nobukhwebezane is back! The water princess is back!" they shouted, running to the edge of the river.

Nobukhwebezane was sitting on a rock close to the riverbank, smiling.

"Princess, we are really sorry for never saying thank you for your gifts of fruits and vegetables!" said Malaika.

"Yes, Nobukhwebezane, we apologise. Please forgive us," begged Khwezi.

"Kwanzaa is a time for giving gifts. Today we have a gift for you!" said Lubo, reaching out to give Nobukhwebezane the bag full of blackberries.

Nobukhwebezane looked inside the bag and smiled. "These blackberries look delicious. Thank you, friends!"

"We are also thankful to you, Princess, for the gifts that you have given us year after year at Kwanzaa. Thank you," Malaika said shyly.

"My friends, ... Kwanzaa is a time of giving, joy, peace and love! Come close, I want to teach you a new song!" Then Nobukhwebezane sang:

*"Always be thankful, always love and you will receive in return!
Always be thankful, always love and you will receive in return!
Always be thankful, always love! These are always good!"*

"Now, hurry home," she said. "It's getting late! Here are the baskets of fruits and vegetables. They are waiting for you."

"Thank you, Water Princess. Thank you, Nobukhwebezane!" said the girls.

"Go well! Happy Kwanzaa!" shouted Nobukhwebezane.

"To you too, Princess! Thank you!" shouted the girls.

When the girls arrived home, the villagers were already waiting for them. "Thank you, girls. It looks like you brought more fruit and vegetables than ever before. Thank you!" said the chief of the village.

When the girls heard this, they looked at each other ... and smiled. They knew that Nobukhwebezane had forgiven them. "Thank you, Princess," they whispered.

Almal het gedink Mama Esther is 'n heks. Sy het stoksielalleen in 'n klein huisie gewoon en net dorp toe gegaan om kos te koop wat sy nie in haar tuin kon kweek nie. Niemand het met haar gepraat nie, en sy het met niemand gepraat nie.

Toe Mama Esther se huis se dak tydens 'n storm afwaai, kom niemand haar help nie. Die dorpsmense slaan hul jaskrae op en trek hul hoede oor hul oë sodat hulle nie na haar vervalle huisie hoeft te kyk as hulle verbystap nie.

Maar daar was een jong man met die naam George wat gedink het dis tyd om iets te doen aan Mama Esther ...

Use your imagination to complete the story. Tell a friend or parent your story.

Everyone thought Mama Esther was a witch. She lived alone in a small house and only went to town to buy food she could not grow in her garden. No one spoke to her, and she spoke to no one.

So when Mama Esther's roof blew off during a storm, no one came to help her. The townspeople pulled their coat collars up high and their hats down low so they would not have to look at her broken little house when they walked by.

But there was one young man named George who thought it was time to do something about Mama Esther ...
