GO TUTUELETŠEGA GO BALA!

BANA BA BOLETŠE GORE!

... bontši bija dipuku tše ba di badilego di be di etšwa bokgobapukung.

... most of the books they read came from a library.

MOTIVATED TO READ!

We know that reading lots of books helps to make children better readers. If we want to get our children reading and then keep them reading, it's really helpful to understand what motivates them to read. Here is what some children aged 9 and 10 had to say about books and reading.

THE CHILDREN SAID THAT:

... they were more likely to read a book that they had chosen themselves than a book chosen for them by a teacher or parent.

... makgobapuku a ile a ba fa monyetla wa go lebelela dipuku tše dintši tše di fapanego pele ba kgetha tše ba nyakago go di bala.

... libraries gave them the opportunity to look at lots of different books before choosing the ones they wanted to read.

... kgahlego ya bona ya go bala e ile ya šušumetšwa le go hloholetšwa ke maloko a malapa a bobona (kudukudu bommago bona), barutiši le bagwera.

... their interest in reading was sparked and encouraged by their family members (especially their mothers), teachers and friends.

Re swanetše go dira eng?

- Kgonthiša gore bana ba gago ba na le phihlelolo ya dipuku le dikanegelo tše dintši tše di fapanego. E re bana ba gago ba tsenele sehlopha sa go bala goba o thome se sengwe sa gago.
- Iša bana ba gago bokgobapukung gomme, ge o kgona, o ba rekele dipuku.
- E re ba ikgethele dipuku tša bona.
- Bolela le bana ba gago ka ga dipuku gomme o ba balele, go sa šetšwe mengwaga ya bona.
- Ba hloholetše go bolela le bana ba bangwe ka ga dipuku.

What do we need to do?

- Make sure that your children have access to lots of different books and stories. Let your children join a reading club or start one of your own.
- Take your children to the library and, when you can, buy books for them.
- Let them choose their own books.
- Speak to your children about books and read to them, no matter their age.
- Encourage them to speak to other children about books.

NEELANA & GO ABELANA DIPUKU

Ge eba dipuku tše go o sa di bala, goreng o sa neelane ka tšona sekolong, bokgobapukung goba sehlopheng sa go bala? Le ka fana ka dipuku le bagwera le maloko a malapa goba wa adima ye nngwe go motho yo mongwe yo a ka nyakago go ba le puku ya go kgahliša go e bala.

Learn to play, play to learn

Batswadi ba rategago le baabatlhokomelo ba bana ba bannyane, ka go bapala dipapadi tša "go itira eke," bana ba rena ba ithuta go diriša maswao. Se se ra gore ba ithuta go šomiša selo setee go emela selo se sengwe. Mohlala: ngwana wa gago a ka dira eke koloi ya sebapadišwa ke mogala goba lepokisi la dieta ke pese. Ka dipukung, mantšu ke maswao. A emela dikgopolo le dikakanyo tša rena. Ka go bapala dipapadi tša "go itira eke" bana ba rena ba hlabolla kwešišo ya maswao yeo e lego bohlokwa bakeng sa go ithuta go bala.

Dear parents and caregivers of young children, by playing "pretend" games, our children learn to use symbols. This means that they learn how to use one thing to represent something else. For example: your child may pretend a toy car is a phone or a shoe box is a bus. In books, words are symbols. They stand for our thoughts and ideas. Through playing "pretend" games, our children develop an understanding of symbols, which is essential for learning to read.

Tše dingwe tša ditsela tše o ka hlohleletšago bana ba gago go bapala ka "go itira eke" ke tše.

✿ Tsena ka gare. Botšiša ge eba o ka ba moanegwa papading ya bana ba gago gomme ka morago o tsenele papadi. Theogela maemong a bona ka go dula fase goba setulong sa tlase. Se se tla go thuša go kgokagana le bona.

✿ Bogela gomme o latele. Leka go bea dibapadišwa tše dingwe tše di ka dirišetšwago go bapala "go itira eke" gomme o bone seo se gogago šedi ya ngwana wa gago. Bapala papadi ya "go itira eke" yeo ngwana wa gago a kgethago go e bapala. Bana ba tutueletšega kudu go bapala le wena ge o latela ketapele ya bona.

✿ Šielanang. Ka nako ye nngwe nakong ya papadi, go bonolo gore re ikwe re swanetše go tše taolo gomme re ba bontšhe seo ba swanetšego go se dira. Go e na le moo, dira se sengwe ka sebapadišwa seo o nago le sona, ke moka o lete nakwana e le gore ngwana wa gago a kgone go dira se sengwe ka sebapadišwa sa gagwe.

✿ Bala ka go hlaboša lentšu. Dikanegelo di fa bana kabo yeo e sa felego ya dikakanyo tša baanegwa, dipeakanyo le maemo ao ba ka a šomišago papading ya bona ya "go itira eke."

Here are some ways
you can encourage your children's
"pretend" play.

✿ Join in. Ask if you can be a character in your children's game and then join in the game. Get down to their level by sitting on the floor or on a low chair. This will help you to connect with them.

✿ Watch and follow. Try putting out some toys that could be used for "pretend" play and see what catches your child's interest. Play the "pretend" game that your child chooses to play. Children are more motivated to play with you when you follow their lead.

✿ Take turns. Sometimes during play, it's easy for us to feel like we need to take over and show them what to do. Rather, do something with the toy you have, then wait a while so that your child can do something with his toy.

✿ Read aloud. Stories offer children an endless supply of ideas for characters, settings and situations that they can use in their "pretend" play.

Leeto la go bala

Go ithuta go bala ke leeto la go utolla. O ka lemoga gore ngwana wa gago yo a bego a tšhaba ge o be o leka go mmalela, bjale o na le puku ya diswantšho ya mmamoratwa yeo a nyakago gore o e bale leboele! Goba mohlomongwe ngwana wa gago yo mogolo o itira eke o bala go tšwa pukung ya diswantšho yeo a e tšwaetšego. Ge eba o bala le bana ba gago ka mehla, o tla lemoga gore mekgwa ya bona ya go bala e fetoga ge nako e dutše eya.

The reading journey

Learning to read is a journey of discovery. You may notice that your child who used to run off when you tried to read to them, now has a favourite picture book that they want you to read over and over again! Or maybe your older child pretends to read from a familiar picture book. If you read with your children regularly, you will notice that their reading habits change over time.

- ★ Masea a ka homola ge o thoma go a balela puku, go bontšha gore a theeletša, gomme ka dinako tše dingwe a tla opa diatlā goba a raga go bontšha lethabo la bona.
- ★ Ge bana ba thoma go leka go "bala" ka bobona, gantsi ba phetla matlakala a puku, ba lebelela diswantšho ge ba dutše ba itlhama kanegelo ya bona.
- ★ Naa go na le dipuku tše dingwe tša dikanegelo tše bana ba gago ba go kgopelago gore o di bale leboele? O ka hweša bana ba gago ba "bala" dipuku tše ka bobona ka go lebelela diswantšho le go anega kanegelo. Ba ka šomiša motswako wa mantšu a bona le a mangwe a mantšu a kgonthe go tšwa kanegelong. Ye ke kgato ye bohlokwa ya go ithuta go bala ka gobane e ra gore bana ba lemoga gore mantšu ao a ngwadilwego a dula a swana nako le nako ge o a bala.
- ★ Ge bana ba thoma go ipalela ka go hlaboša lentšu, o ka lemoga gore ba leka go phopholetša gore lentšu ke eng ka go nagana ka seo se šetšego se diregile kanegelong. Goba ba ka diriša diswantšho tše go ba fa ditšupetšo tša gore lentšu leo le sa tšwaetlego e ka ba e le eng. Tše ke maswao a kwagalago a gore bana ba gago ba tseleng ye botse ya go ba babadi bao ba ikemetšego.

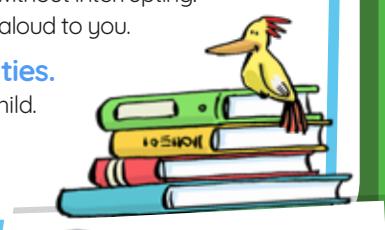

- ★ Babies may become quiet when you start to read a book to them, showing that they are listening, and sometimes they will clap or kick to show their excitement.
- ★ As children start to try to "read" on their own, they often turn the pages of the book, looking at the pictures while they make up their own story.
- ★ Are there some storybooks that your children ask you to read again and again? You may find your children "reading" these books on their own by looking at the pictures and telling the story. They may use a mixture of their own words and some of the actual words from the story. This is an important step in learning to read because it means that children realise that written words stay the same each time you read them.
- ★ As children begin to read aloud for themselves, you may notice that they try to guess what a word is by thinking about what has already happened in the story. Or they may use the pictures to give them clues about what the unfamiliar word might be. These are clear signs that your children are well on their way to becoming independent readers.

Ka moo o ka dirišago dikanegelo tša rena ka ditsela tša go fapanā

1. Anegele ngwana wa gago kanegelo. Bala kanegelo gomme o itšwaetšo go e anega. Ke moka diriša lentšu la gago, sefahlego le mmele go phediša kanegelo.
2. Balela ngwana wa gago kanegelo. Boledisanang ka diswantšho. Mmotšise go re, "O nagana gore go tlo direga eng ka morago?" goba "O nagana gore ke ka baka la eng moanegwa yo a boletše selo se goba a dirile selo se?"
3. Bala kanegelo le ngwana wa gago. Šiedisanang ka go bala kanegelo le le mmogo. O se ke wa mo phosolla mo a dirago diphošo, mo thuše feela ge a kgopela thušo.
4. Theeletša ngwana wa gago ge a bala. Mo theeletše ntle le go mo tsena ganong. Mmotše gore o thabela go mo kwa a go balela.
5. Dirang mešongwana ya Dira gore kanegelo e be le bophelo! Se se swanetše go thabiša wena le ngwana wa gago.

How to use our stories in different ways

1. Tell the story to your child. Read and practise telling the story. Then use your voice, face and body to bring the story to life.
2. Read the story to your child. Talk about the pictures. Ask, "What do you think happens next?" or "Why do you think the character said or did that?"
3. Read the story with your child. Take turns to read the story together. Don't correct their mistakes, and only help if they ask for it.
4. Listen to your child read. Listen without interrupting. Say that you enjoy hearing them read aloud to you.
5. Do the Get story active! activities. This should be fun for you and your child.

Nal'ibali News

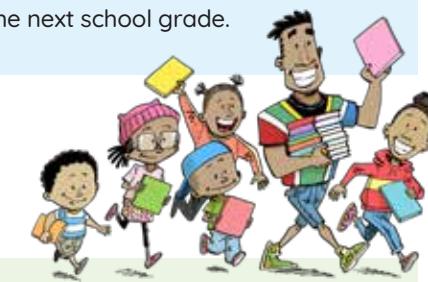

Reading corners bring joy to children in hospitals

Sibongiseni Blose is Nal'ibali's National Programmes Coordinator and is based in KwaZulu-Natal. In 2022, Sibongiseni was inspired to create reading corners in children's hospitals. She knew that a reading corner could be more than just a distraction. It would provide a space for children to engage their imaginations, escape into new worlds and find some comfort during their hospital stay.

What sparked the idea of placing reading corners in hospitals?

As a child, I spent six months in hospital, separated from my family and the life I knew. During that time, caring educators held classes and made reading time a fun and engaging adventure. Their enthusiasm helped me to forget the pain caused by my condition and kept my mind active. This experience not only helped me emotionally but also allowed me to keep up with my studies, and when I was discharged, I was able to move on to the next school grade.

When were the first reading corners started and in which hospitals?

The first reading corner was established at Prince Mshiyeni Memorial Hospital in 2022. After that, I set up reading corners at Wentworth Hospital, King Edward Hospital, St. Aidan's Hospital and Addington Hospital. I'm so excited about including more hospitals!

counted the notes and coins secretly, keeping them close to her body. She frowned and tucked the money into a hidden pocket in her skirt. She

It was a Saturday morning and month-end: the best day for picking pockets. I can get lost in the crowd better than anyone else on the streets. Bjalo ka motho a nnoši wa Nal'ibali ka KZN, ke tlhotlo go hlokomba dikhutlwana tša go bala tša sepetele, eupša Sibongiseni o dira seo!

As the only Nal'ibali person in KZN, it's a challenge to maintain the hospital reading corners, but Sibongiseni does it!

Who manages these reading corners every day?

In all the hospitals, the reading corners are managed by the hospital staff, with speech therapists and nurses volunteering to read to the children. Wentworth Hospital has proposed bringing in local volunteers to engage children in fun reading and storytelling sessions. There are some other ongoing challenges. One is maintaining the books in the reading corners. Some hospitals stamp the books to prevent them from being taken out of the ward when children are discharged, but this can still happen. Another challenge is making sure the books are replenished regularly.

Naa karabelo ya batswadi, baoki le bašomi ba sepetele e bile efe?

Ke ile ka hwetsa dikarabo tše di fapanego go tšwa go batho ba bagolo. Batswadi ba bangwe ba be ba sa kwešiše kgopolu ye ebole ba se na kgahlego. Leloko la bašomi ba sepetele le balela molwetši wa ngwana

A hospital staff member reads to child patient.

What was the response of parents, nurses and hospital staff?

I got mixed responses from the adults. Some parents didn't understand the idea and weren't interested. However, when I visited Wentworth Hospital, one child picked a particular book each time he came back to the reading corner. His mother was amazed that her son enjoyed it so much and started visiting the reading corner with him to read with him. So, a change in attitude is possible. While some of the nurses were excited and helped set up the reading spaces, their focus is on treating patients, not reading.

Go go dira gore o ikwe bjang ge o nagana ka katlego ya dikhutlwana tša go bala tša sepetele?

Ge ke nagana ka katlego ya dikhutlwana tša go bala tša sepetele, ke ikwa ke kgotsotše ebole ke leboga. Ka ge ke be ke le sepetele ka nako ye telele ge ke be ke sa le ngwana, ke tseba ka moo go ka bago bodutu le go phaelwa thoko ka gona. Ke ka fao ke thomilego maitekela a #LeaveNoChildBehind. Ba swanelwa ke lethabo, tlhohleletšo le selo seo ba swanetšego go se lebelela pele. #LeaveNoChildBehind e ikemiseditše go netefatša gore ngwana yo mongwe le yo mongwe o a thekgwa. E bile mo go rutherford pelo e le ka kgonthe go bona batho ba bagolo ba akaretšwa ka go bala le bana ba bona.

How does it make you feel when you think about the success of the hospital reading corners?

When I think about the success of the hospital reading corners, I feel fulfilled and grateful. Having been in hospital for a long time when I was a child, I know how lonely and isolating it can be. That's why I started the #LeaveNoChildBehind initiative. Every child in the hospital deserves more than just a bed and treatment. They deserve joy, stimulation and something to look forward to. #LeaveNoChildBehind aims to ensure that every child is supported. It has been truly heartwarming to see adults get involved by reading with their kids.

Yes, it's part of my job, but more than anything, it's about giving back to the community. Books and reading can provide an escape for sick children. They help them understand their illness, work through their emotions and even begin to heal.

Ee, ke karolo ya mošomo wa ka, eupša go feta selo se sengwe le se sengwe, ke go neela morago setšhabeng. Dipuku le go bala di ka nea bana bao ba babjago tsela ya go ngwega. Ba ba thuša go kwešiše bolwetši bja bona, ba šoma ka maikutlo a bona gaešita le go thoma go fola.

It suits me just fine

By A. le Roux ■ Illustrations by Brice Reignier

Story corner

Hare stands still. Before him lies the veld with trees and grass and grass and trees. A path runs through the grass and trees. Hare must follow the path in search of a new home.

Hare sniffs the air. The wind lifts his coat, and his whiskers twitch.

As Hare starts running along the path, he sees a porcupine quill. He looks at it for a moment, bends down to look at it more carefully, then says, "It suits me just fine." With that, he picks it up and puts it in his bag.

Further along the path, Hare comes across a railway spike from a train track. He looks at it for a moment, bends down to look at it more carefully, then says, "It suits me just fine." With that, he picks it up and puts it in his bag.

Hare's journey continues through the veld until he comes across a tortoise lying in his path. He looks at it for a moment, bends down to look at it more carefully, then says, "It suits me just fine." With that, he picks it up and puts it in his bag.

Near a clump of trees, Hare is very surprised to come across a hunting rifle. He looks at it for a moment, bends down to look at it more carefully, then says, "It suits me just fine." With that, he picks it up and puts it in his bag.

Finally, Hare sees a house in the distance. He walks closer, sniffs the air and, with whiskers twitching, he knocks and calls out, "Anyone home?" The house looks empty, so Hare walks in, closes the door and bolts it behind him.

As Hare is settling into his new house, he hears a rattle and a roar from the door. "Who is in my house?" a voice says from outside.

Hare tiptoes closer and peeps through a crack in the door. He sees a huge, fierce lion. Hare quickly answers, "Lion, you don't know me. I am the biggest monster ever, and this house is now my house. I found it quite empty and claimed it."

On hearing this, Lion roars such a fierce roar that all the animals scatter from the veld and all the birds fly from the trees.

"I am the King of this veld!" roars Lion angrily. "There is no one who is bigger and more fearsome than I am. Don't I have the loudest roar and the sharpest claws?"

Hare, who is very clever, thinks about this for a moment before replying.

"Let's do some tests to see who the biggest monster is. The biggest monster will have this house. Now, push one of your hairs under the door for me to see and I will do the same. Then you will see that I am the biggest monster," says Hare.

Lion is sure that this is going to be easy. He plucks a hair from his tawny coat and pushes it under the door just as Hare slips the porcupine quill under the door. Lion gets a big fright and shakes his head.

"I think I win this test," says Hare. "Now stick one of your toenails under the door and let me see just how sharp your claws are."

Lion is sure that this is going to be easy. He sticks one of his toenails under the door just as Hare pushes the railway spike from a train track under the door.

Lion gets a big fright and shakes his head again.

"I think I win this test too," says Hare. "Now push one of your ticks under the door, and I will do the same."

Lion is sure this is going to be easy. He takes a tick off his coat and pushes it under the door just as Hare slips the tortoise under the door.

Lion gets a big fright and shakes his head again.

"For the final test we will each roar our most frightening roar. As I have won all the tests so far, I will let you go first," Hare says.

Lion takes a deep breath, clears his throat and roars the loudest, most frightening roar ever, but Hare pulls out the hunting rifle and shoots it into the air.

The boom echoes across the veld, and Lion gets such a fright that he turns around and runs and runs until he disappears into the distance and Hare can no longer see him.

And that is how Hare found a house that suited him just fine. And that is why Lion lost his house and why he still does not like the boom of a hunting rifle.

Get story active!

- As Lion runs away, he imagines what the monster in the house looks like. Draw what Lion imagines the monster is like.
- Use clay or play dough to make a model of a lion and a hare.

- Write a review of the story. Include a short summary and say why you would or wouldn't recommend it to other readers of your age or younger than you.
